Dear Bravo Company Regulars,

This will be my last letter to you as President of our unit. First, I would like to thank Tony and Roxanne Togisala for hosting our reunion in Salt Lake City next month. I would also like to thank Ted Silberies, Dave Lowell, Ted Rowley and especially John Otte. Without John, we wouldn't have had these reunions. Thank you all for your help and hard work.

Memorial Day is a special day for us at Bravo Company. It's a day to think of our fallen comrades who unselfishly gave their all to keep freedom alive. We should always remember them.

I hope and pray that we have a great reunion and that I see everyone arrive safely at Salt Lake City.

Take care,

Max

Vice-President's Message

Our reunion in Salt Lake City is fast approaching and I'm looking forward to seeing all of you. These reunions are a great way to keep in touch and reconnect with those we haven't seen in a while.

There were probably guys you knew in country that you'd like to reconnect with. I know I've found myself thinking "I wonder what ever happen to Doc..." but I've no idea what Doc's real name is. Remember, we pretty much called all of our medics Doc. In fact, a lot of the guys were only known by nicknames. By attending reunions you may be able to reconnect.

Case in point—finding our 2014 reunion host "Tony" Togisala. We located him while attending a reunion several years ago. A bunch of us were sitting around a hotel room after the night's festivities and a couple of us from 3rd platoon got to talking about this guy we served with ... Tony Togisala. We'd been unable to locate him. We searched for Tony and Anthony, but with no luck. Bill Schwindt from Charlie Company spoke up that he remembered a Togisala on the Charlie Company orders but his name wasn't Tony. Bill's paperwork showed Kereti Togisala had served with us! It was a long shot but I made the call the next morning. To make a long story short, only his army buddies called him Tony. It was great to see him and Roxanne at our next reunion.

I'm sure many of us have someone we'd like to see again. Don't let the number of years that have passed since we were in country stop us from continuing the search.

As for this year, it looks like Tony has a great event planned for us, so mail in your registration form today and help make this reunion a memorable success.

Editor's Notes

Welcome back Bravo Brothers! Another Memorial Day has passed as all of us reflected on our shared history and those we left behind. Our current Memorial Page is on page 2, giving it a more appropriate backing than some unassociated print, for those who keep it handy for reference.

Our combat report for this issue covers the Battle of Good Friday on April 12, 1968. It was the largest single day casualty toll of the war for our company.

Steve Earp (68/69) has alerted us to a change in VA pension law, allowing for a needs-based pension for wartime veterans over 65 years of age, providing they meet net worth and income requirements. To see the article online, go to VFW Magazine, click on March issue, then go to page 16. It can also be viewed at your local library, if you do not have a computer.

I spotted a newspaper article on the planned expansion of the Vietnam War Memorial in Washington, D.C., and have posted it on our Bulletin Board for your perusal.

Blair Moran (Co. RTO—69/70) has alerted us to video footage available on the internet of our battalion conducting a clearing operation on Black Virgin Mountain in January, 1970. To view, type in Operation Cliffdweller on the search line, then click on 221st. Signal Vietnam war films.

Walt Shugart ((C.O.—1/67-4/67) made a brief television appearance while participating in a Vietnam Seminar for high school ROTC students at the Virginia War Memorial, where he is a volunteer. To view, go to <http://video.ideastations.org/video/2365221273/>. Thank you, Walt, for your continuing good deeds on behalf of veterans.

Be reminded that at each reunion we have a "photo table." Please bring your photo albums or other memorabilia to share. Also welcome would be books, DVDs or any other related material. Dee will have a portable DVD player available for use. I will be providing binders with all of our combat reports. Dee will provide a display detailing "Things to See and Do in Salt Lake City." Also, we will be distributing a roster and Memorial Page to each member attending. We are looking forward to seeing all of you.

Journalist Nick Carey is still planning to attend our reunion and is seeking volunteers to be interviewed. His request is on our Bulletin Board. If you qualify, please take part.

Lon Oakley, President, 22nd Infantry Regiment Society, emailed a request for funds to erect the 22nd Infantry Memorial Monument at the National Infantry Museum, Ft. Benning, GA. Details are on the Bulletin Board.

With sadness, I must report the passing of two more brothers. Available information is on our Bulletin Board. To the families, on behalf of Bravo Regulars, please accept our condolences for your loss, which we share with you.

Max Torres (3rd Platoon, Original) will be completing his four year 'tour of duty' with Bravo Company at the next reunion, having served as Vice-President, 2012 Reunion host and President. Thank you, Max, for your service to our organization, from all of us. Also, a special thanks to Rosemary for all your hard work and for putting up with us!

Changes to our website are underway and continuing. Mostly just updating the wording and links. It is your website, so feel free to comment.

Thanks to all who contributed to this newsletter. Your participation helps keep our organization strong. Our next newsletter will be published in September and we will be accepting input through the end of August. Until then, may peace be with you.

BULLETIN BOARD

Submitted by Editor—The Battle of Good Friday from the after action report

On Thursday, April 11, 1968 the 3rd Battalion, 22nd Infantry, acting on reports of intensive enemy activity, climbed from choppers into a remote jungle area 1.3 miles north of the Dau Tieng base camp. In the few hours before darkness the Regulars busied themselves by establishing a perimeter of hastily prepared foxholes. As darkness quickly surrounded them, they made themselves as comfortable as possible. Companies B, C, and D had "combat assaulted" into the area and carefully swept the outskirts before establishing three ambush patrols and three listening posts. The larger position was arranged in a clearing surrounded by jungle, ranging from single to triple canopy. Scattered trees and anthills caused some obstruction, however, the flat terrain provided good fields of fire. The Battalion Commander, LTC Roy K. Flint, employed the three companies on the defensive perimeter, holding the Reconnaissance Platoon as a reserve. All elements were arranged to employ interlocking fires.

At approximately 0230 hours on 12 April 1968, Good Friday, the perimeter received light probing fire from the west. The Regulars answered it with small arms, automatic weapons and Claymore mines. Between 0330 and 0400 hours, the enemy launched a heavy and accurate mortar attack on the perimeter using 61 and 82 millimeter mortars. Approximately 125 rounds landed inside the perimeter, causing numerous casualties. The mortar barrage reached peak intensity at about 0405 hours and a massive ground attack followed. Bravo Company received the main thrust of the attack. Charlie Company held the right flank and Delta the left. Using small arms, automatic weapons, 90 mm recoilless rifles, hand grenades and bayonets, the infantrymen repulsed the enemy as fast as they came. As the attack grew more intense, LTC Flint called for artillery support and it arrived quickly.

Launching more and more "human wave" assaults, the enemy penetrated the defensive line. Bravo Company was forced to pull back approximately 50 meters as they were being overrun. Elements from the Recon Platoon and Delta Company moved across the beaten zone to reinforce Bravo and deliver ammunition. Charlie Company turned its left flank machine guns upon the advancing enemy as they streamed across Bravo's bunkers. This crossfire caught the enemy in a vice between Delta and Charlie Companies, as reinforced Bravo Company fought its way back to the main bunker line. Combined with tactical air strikes, gunships, artillery and the fast approach of the 2nd Battalion, 22nd Infantry (Mechanized), the foot soldiers of the 3rd Battalion repulsed the enemy and the perimeter was secured by 0630 hours. Fighting had been extremely fierce during the push to regain the bunker line. Some of the enemy died at a range of 5 meters and, in some instances, hand to hand combat occurred. A total of 127 enemy died within the perimeter.

As morning light appeared, the 2nd Battalion, 22nd Infantry (Mechanized) merged into the 3rd Battalion's perimeter to reinforce. They had battled pockets of resistance through five miles of jungle, at night, to get to their American counterparts. Captain Bill Allison, Commanding Charlie Company, 2/22 Infantry and his mechanized troopers approached firing their fifty caliber's as the enemy fled west into the jungle. All combat was broken by 0730 hours. The enemy left behind 153 bodies along with a substantial amount of equipment.

At 0800 hours, 12 April 1968, Brigadier General Gleason, Assistant Division Commander of the 25th Infantry Division, arrived to survey the battlefield and present awards. The following men received "impact awards" of the Silver Star; our Nation's third highest award for gallantry in action: Cpt. Gerald White, Commanding Officer of Delta Company; 1LT Richard Prairie, Commander of Bravo Company; SFC Robert E. Nelson, Company D; Sergeant Edward D. Crow, Company B; SP/5 Carl L. Felgenhauer, Company C Medic and SP/4 David Chedister, Recon Platoon Medic. Captain White's and SP/4 Chedister's Silver Stars were later upgraded to the Distinguished Service Cross. General Creighton Abrams, US Commander in Chief in Vietnam, came to FSB Buell in January 1969 to present those two awards.

The Battle of Good Friday (continued)

The following statistical data was submitted shortly after the battle: 1) 16 US Killed in Action, 47 wounded; 2) 153 enemy Killed in Action, 53 additional reported forward of the perimeter by aerial summary and recon patrols; 3) weapons and equipment captured: 45 AK-47 assault rifles, 7 AK-50 assault rifles, 13 light machine guns, 7 RPG-2 rocket launchers, 2 bolt action carbines, 38 RPG-2 rounds, 5 RPG-7 rounds, 93 hand grenades and 29 light machine gun ammo drums.

The Regulars departed the perimeter the following morning after burying the dead and policing the battlefield. They spent Easter Sunday at their base camp, Dau Tieng.

The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, the nonprofit organization authorized by the U.S. Congress in 1980 to build a national memorial in Washington, D.C., is well-known for its stewardship of "The Wall." The dark stone slabs with the names of the Vietnam War's fallen etched into them attracts millions of visitors every year. The fund is now in the process of gathering donations to add a learning center nearby. "It's been an uphill challenge from the beginning," group spokesman Tim Tetz said. But the organization has made significant progress. To date, it has collected $38 million in donations on its way to a goal of $115 million for the memorial's expansion. Among the planned features of the learning center is an interactive Wall of Faces, showing photographs of all those who died. "These photographs really tell so much and bring back such raw emotion," Tetz said. The impetus for the feature came early in the history of the memorial, as people routinely left letters, photos and other mementos at the memorial. By 1998, an enormous collection had been amassed. Many of those items will be on display once the center is built. In the meantime, the group is still collecting photographs of those killed in Vietnam. To date, photographs of more than 38,000 of the fallen have been submitted. The group's website also has the photographs on display in searchable format. The fund requests that people continue to send photos of their loved ones to complete the mission of putting a face to all of the more than 58,000 names on the Wall. To view the website or to contribute a photo, go to vvmf.org. Photos can be mailed to the fund at: Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, 2600 Virginia Avenue, N.W., Suite 104, Washington, DC 20037.

Submitted by Nick Carey, journalist for Thomson Reuters

My name is Nick Carey. I will be attending Bravo Company's reunion in Salt Lake City in July and am hoping to talk to veterans of Fire Support Base Burt, or Suoi Cut, on January 1, 1968, plus Suoi Tre on March 21, 1967, Ap Cho in February, 1968, Good Friday on April 11, 1968 and also the firefight on January 15, 1968. For the past year and a half, I have been interviewing Vietnam veterans from the 3/22, 2/22 and the 2/77 for a book that will feature these battles, primarily FSB Burt. Originally this was to be a book solely about the battle of FSB Burt, but after interviewing 140 people (including nurses who served at the 12th Evac in Cu Chi, plus fiancées and relatives of some of the fallen), this is now a book about men and women with battles in it. This collective biography will weave together the life experiences of the veterans I have spoken to in order to recreate the Vietnam experiences on the microcosm—this will include focusing on where these young men came from, their training, their experiences on the ground in Vietnam, coming home and how their combat experiences have and continue to affect them. If any Bravo veterans attending the reunion would be willing to share their life stories with me, I would be incredibly grateful. This is an important story that needs to be told and I need your help to tell it. Whether you were an Original or a Replacement at any of the battles listed above, I want to hear your story. If you wish to find out more before agreeing to an interview (which on average lasts one to two hours), you can reach me by email at nick.carey@thomsonreuters.com or you can call me on my cell phone at (312) 636-8837.

BULLETIN BOARD

Submitted by Lon D. Oakley, Jr., LTC(S) U. S. Army Retired, President 22nd Infantry Regiment Society, Co. A 2/22nd Infantry—11B40—Vietnam 1969

My Brothers: So many of you have served in the ranks of the 4th Infantry, 25th Infantry and 10th Mountain Divisions during our tours of duty with the Regiment. The 4th and 25th Divisions have recently dedicated monuments at the National Infantry Museum's Walk of Honor located at Fort Benning, Georgia. Our memorial monument needs to join them to honor our "Fallen Brothers" since the 22nd Infantry first stepped on the battlefield in defense of our nation in 1812. That is over 200 years of service to the United States of America. We belong there too!

Discussion: In conversations with our 22nd Infantry monument lead, LTC(R) Steve Russell (1/22 Bn Cdr in Iraq 2003-2005) and assisted by efforts of John Bradley (A Co. 2/22 9/67-9/68), we have been blessed with an anonymous donor who has pledged to match dollar for dollar of "new" donations towards our monument goal. We currently have $36,000 in "old money." Steve feels if we can raise $50,000 thru the efforts of our veterans (and it is matched) we can erect the 22nd Infantry Regiment Monument on the Walk of Honor; however, we need to move swiftly on this initiative or risk losing the opportunity to have a spot at the museum. The time to act is now!

Concept: We are not asking for you to contribute $500 but instead go to your friends, community organizations and businesses to ask them to assist you in obtaining $500. With the below form seek out friends, community and business leaders, fellow veterans to assist each of us in doing our best to raise $500 each (25 contributions of $20 and you are there). Below is a form you can copy and use to gather donations. We will email receipt of this tax free donation.

5. If you are interested in taking the Salt Lake City Tour Bus on Friday, July 25th, which includes a buffet lunch at the world's greatest buffet at Chuck O'Rama, please send in $50 to reserve your seat so we can have a head count to determine how many busses we will need. We will be picked up by the buses at the hall, not the hotels. For information—<http://www.saltlakecitytours.org/>.
6. The Parade: We need to know how many are interested in riding in the Days of 47 Pioneer Day Parade. Pioneer Day is a local holiday here in Utah. Don't worry, we will not be marching in the parade! We are being supported by the National Guard who will be providing military Humvees, deuce 1/2 trucks, and a bus for us to ride in. If you are interested in marching, we would be more than happy to issue you boots, a 45 pound ruck, a radio, medic aide bag, and the heaviest M-14 rifles we can find, and don't forget we need an M-60 gunner too! (Just kidding, nobody is marching.)
